Saturday, October 5, 2013 NCAPPS conference starts at 8 am:

Along with our annual elections NCAPPS has an exciting line of speakers set for the day and wonderful vendors. Below is a listing of our speakers.

Officer Keith Webster, Karing K-9 will be speaking on how to handle encountering dogs safely when serving papers. He will have a canine companion with him!

Mr. Brad Butler of Butler and Quinn Law Office will address working with the Spanish speaking community.

Steve Glenn, President of the Colorado Association of Professional Process Servers and Director on the NAPPS Board will be joining us addressing us on current ethical issues professional process servers face.

 PROCESS SERVING Education Class with Ruth Reynolds: Due to many interested, Ruth Reynolds is offering to teach her Process Serving Class following the annual meeting. If you are interested, please contact Ms. Reynolds directly for costs and the length of the class, reynoldsproserv@mindspring.com.
